

19 THE CIRCLE 49

THE CIRCLE

COZILY SITUATED at the foot of the mountains, Iredell County is one of the many sections of North Carolina. Centerally located so as to be suited as the county seat, Statesville is one of its leading towns. Years come, years go—and this thriving community continues to grow, while Broad Street becomes longer and longer. But no matter how long this street may become, Mitchell College will always be the period at the West end of the long, long sentence. She also must continue to grow in order to merit her position of prominence. Changes have been, are, and will be taking place on her campus—better equipment, more classroom space, a larger student body. It would be a fine thing to be able to look forward into the future to see what will take place—let's look forward into the pages of this, THE 1949 CIRCLE, and see what has been accomplished thus far.

FOREWORD . . .

tall columns at the west end of Broad street will be symbolic of Mitchell . . . a stately building with wisteria covered columns . . . with the circle as a halo—with the singing tower. Mitchell . . . a small but potent institute . . . a collection of young people . . . of varied descriptions, of varied interests . . . all with the same purpose in mind . . . a secure future. Mitchell . . . a place for serious effort . . . a place for fun and frolic . . . a place ever boosted by its faculty. Mitchell . . . a small college with big ideals . . . with students who are intently interested in helping her attain them. This is the Mitchell we know and love; the subject of this Annual.

—The Staff

MARY EDNA PORTER

Dean of Women

TO PORTER...

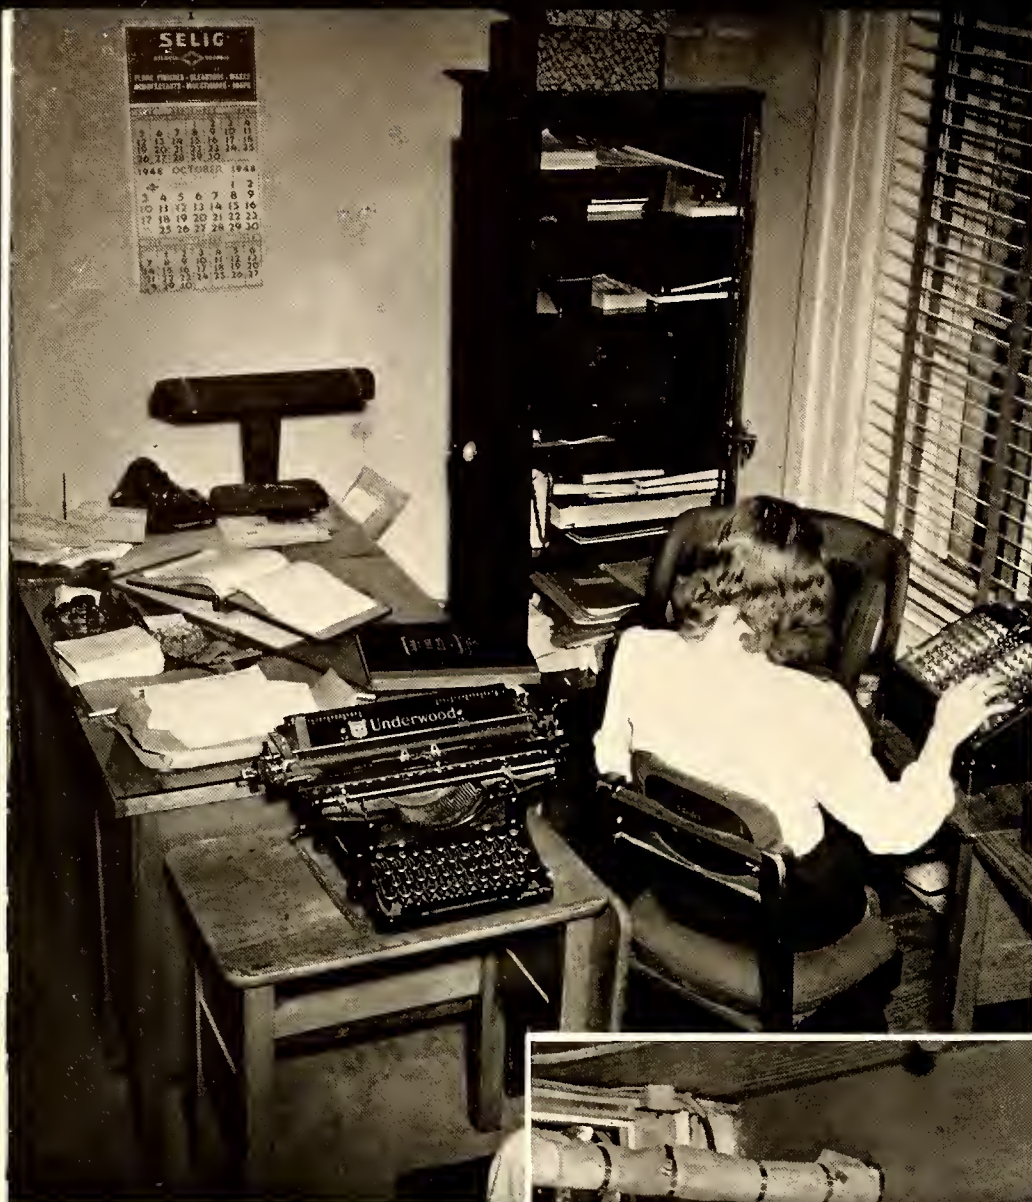

whose unfailing effort to make us "fly right,"
to help ourselves and our school . . . for her understanding and faith in us . . . her carefree air and ability to make everyone enjoy himself . . . and of course for her ardent love of Mitchell, South Carolina, and the finer things of life . . .

We Dedicate the 1949 Circle

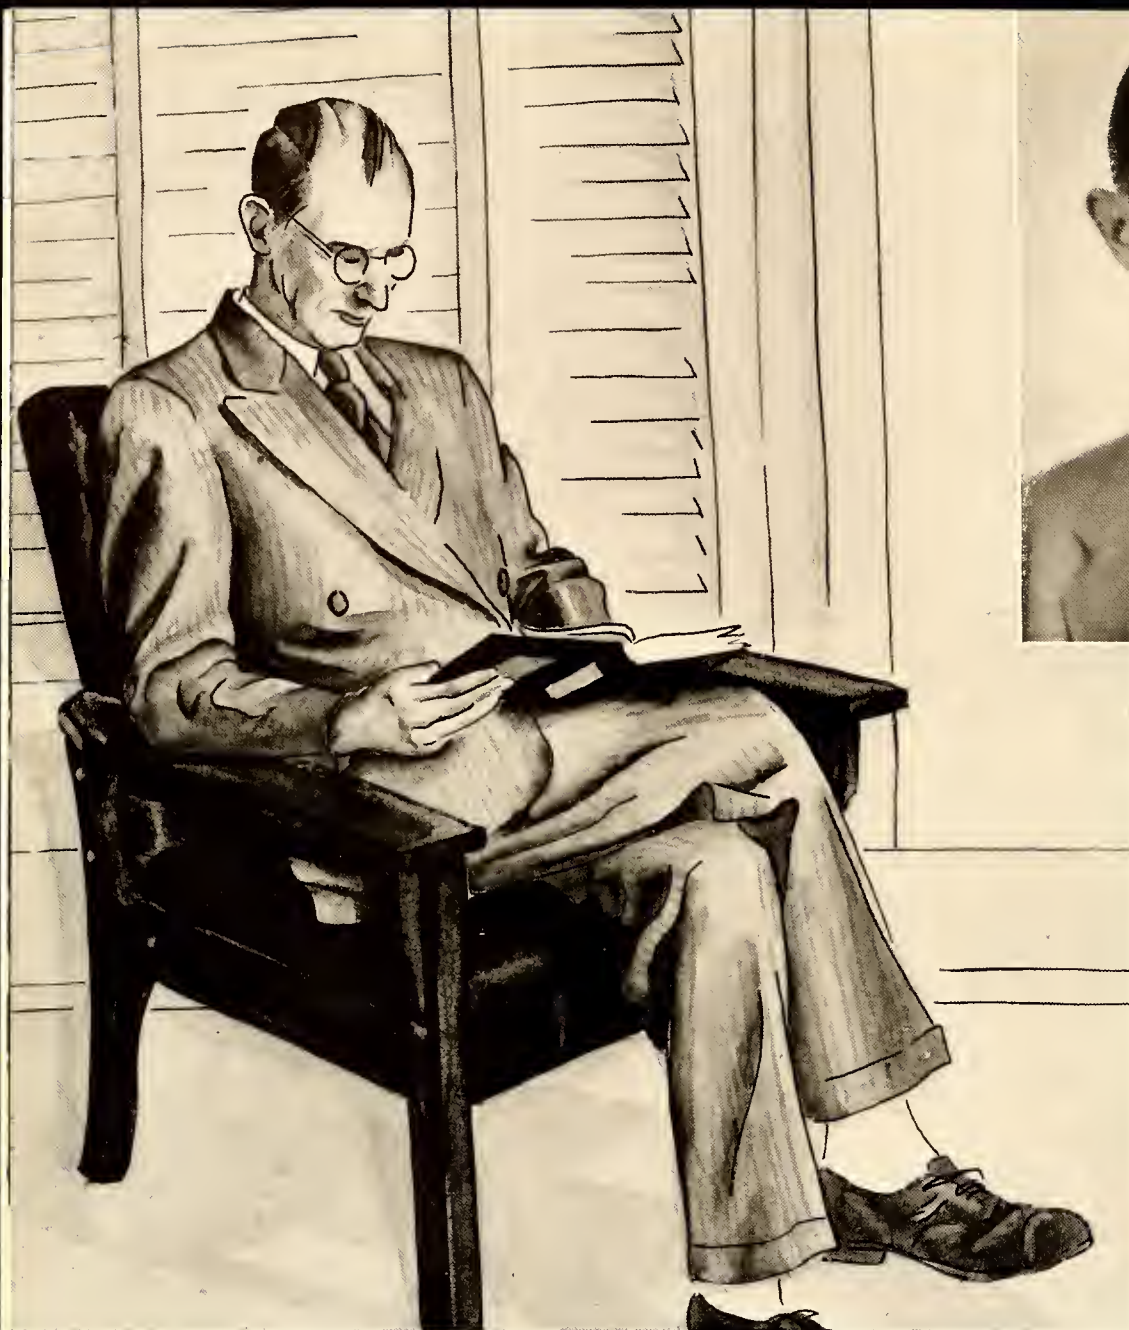

AROUND THE CAMPUS . . . along the shadowy drive around the circle and among the trees in front of the large porch . . . we carefree students while away pleasant hours studying or more often swapping jokes with classmates . . .
so Monday and then Wednesday roll around and we are off to chapel for an hour of devotion . . . of course it snows and there is fun for all . . . snowball fights, sleigh rides and snow-bound parties with plenty of hot chocolate and hamburgers

Inside there is lots going on, too . . . The telephone is always busy making dates, transacting business and bringing good news . . . she's talking to him, so what? But go ahead and listen, she appreciates your interest . . . the business office is well known by all. Here we pay our bills, make our excuses and hear the latest gossip . . . the kit is a favorite meeting place with Proprietor Mize at his place behind the counter . . . the place to grab a snack between classes . . .

JOHN MONTGOMERY

President Montgomery . . . so proud of us that we are proud of him. . . always working for "his students" and "his school". . . always ready with advice or a decision . . . our campus "papa". . .

JOHN CARROLL YOUNGER

BEST LOOKING

She is a Statesville Miss with a bright smile for every day.

Her beauty is a perfect joy in every perfect way.

Her neatness is an attribute as her wardrobe will surely tell,

Her name is a grand old name,
it's Mary Bell.

Handsome is as handsome does
and handsome? he is sure!

Wavy hair, blue eyes, bright smile and singing with allure.

He hails from Statesville; he's a man among men.

His monika is Taylor and folks
all call him Kenneth.

MOST TALENTED

In advertising stunts and techniques, we're sure he can't be beat.

To advertise an ant hill to him
would be no feat.

When it comes to real talent—
he's an overwheeler.

Sherrill is his name. Surely you know Delmar.

A Statesville Gal, she is—her looks are quite "all reet."

Her singing is superb—especially with a boogie beat.

Most talented is her title—she is
—I mean "reely."

A most remarkable girl, Miss Jennie Lee Neely.

BEST ALL-AROUND

Small but potent, that describes him—there couldn't be but one!

He's smart, good-looking, witty and really lots of fun.

You have all met Gene.
He heads us students, you see.

Best-all-around fellow in the senior class. Take a bow, Hoge.

Trys to be a friend to most!
Ceases talking—oh no!

Short, dark hair—dark eyes too—
crooked nose also.

Her title is Best-all-around—for fun she's always ready.

In the books she's listed under Casler, but you just call her Betty.

MOST VALUABLE

You'll find his finger in every pie and always helping—so nice!

He's full of pranks, big words and often helpful advice.

The President of the Senior Class couldn't rightfully be called a meany.

Bill is a grand old guy. Please meet the one and only Sweeney

She is a mighty wonder—a most wonderful Statesville Miss.

Always cheerful and willing when asked to do that or this.

We couldn't do without her—we marvel at the sweetness of her voice.

Most Valuable to us is Saunders popularly known as Joyce.

MOST INTELLIGENT

A great deal of this fellow's intelligence runs along religious lines,

Combined, of course, with information that is always atuned to the times.

This fine combination, along with lots of fun,

Makes him a remarkable gent.
His name? William Anderson.

Book learning—she has plenty,
common sense—she has that, too.

Personality plus—and of faults
she has few.

A smart one is our Helen, a fine gal here in town.

She's the Most Intelligent senior.
Her last name of course is Brown.

MOST ATHLETIC

As a Senior this year she joins us, to Elizabeth City she originally belongs,

With amazing sports ability, she is said to enrapture the throngs.

She's good—and really so—; her charming accent will mark her.

We've seen great things from Jean Parker.

When sports are on the agenda,
this gent is always willing

To do his part in every way to make the game more thrilling.

His actions through all sports,
good sportsmanship will teach.

As Most Athletic senior, we present
Charlie Beach.

MAY DAY, 1948

Numerous rehearsals, hectic last minute preparations were brought to a climax on a late spring Saturday afternoon . . . several hundred spectators, seated around the circle, held breathless by the strains of spring music blended with the songs of birds . . . then the lovely Queen enters, having been preceded by a solemn but beautiful court of attendants . . . after being crowned, she reigned on her throne during the afternoon festivities.

May Queen ALENE JONES

Maid of Honor BETTY LU GILLELAND

Attendants—Annie Laurie Gray, Betty Jean Waugh, Nanearle Gaither, Mary Bell, Jane Mills, Martha Morrison, Virginia Pickett, Jennie Neely, Ann Cagle, Bernice Murdock.
